

About Us

Our vision is create and publish high quality inspirational and motivational mobile apps that can be read in 30-45 minutes. Our goal is simple... to help you achieve yours.

In the past 8 years, we're honored to say that we've published over 8 beautifully designed mobile apps on themes such as attitude, teamwork, leadership, and inspiration. The feedback from over 50,000 customers tells us that we have made a positive difference for individuals and families in their personal and professional lives.

We're proud to say that every app we create makes a difference in a user's lives. In addition to our insightful books, members find hundreds of inspirational prints, work book, training, and gift products through our website. We even offers free discussion guides for our bestselling titles and inspirational movie clips that have generated over one hundred million views worldwide.

Through our free websites and mobile apps, you'll have access to thousands of inspirational quotes, hundreds of stories, and e-cards. We provide these resources through our website in support of our titles because we know that creating a well-rounded experience for every aspect of your life is invaluable.

When you download and start using our apps, you are embarking on an unforgettable journey.
